Adam's Corner

Welcome to Mayfield church of Christ. If you are visiting with us, we are happy you are here. Please let us know if you have any questions for us. Please come back!

Don Fox came forward Sunday requesting prayers of the church. Please keep Don in your prayers. We are so thankful we can go to God in prayer on the behalf of one another.

We are glad to have Mark Neaves and his family with us today. Mark will be teaching the adult Bible class and preaching both sermons today. Mark currently preaches for the Pine Grove church of Christ in Fulton, MS.

Gal 2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

We Love You!

Word of the Week

Sin

“Sin is any attitude of indifference, unbelief or disobedience to the will of God revealed in conscience, law, or gospel—whether this attitude expresses itself in thought, word, deed, or settled disposition and conduct.”

The Old Testament employs a number of words that connote the concept of sin: hattath – a missing or offense; pasha – rebellion, transgression; awon – perversion; ra – evil; resh – a wrong, iniquity, impiety. Similarly, the New Testament uses a number of words for the same purpose: hamartia – a missing the mark; parabasis – transgression; adikia – unrighteousness; asebeia – impiety, wickedness; anomia – contempt and violation of the law; porneia – depravity; epithumia – desire for what is forbidden, lust.

The variety of description of sin in the Bible requires a gathering together of the various terms used to explain this problem of the world: namely, the rebellion of human beings against their Creator. That sin takes on a multiplicity of forms makes it necessary to trace sin’s history, consequences, and antidote—the salvific work of Jesus at Calvary.

The problem of sin and need for redemption is the theme of the Bible. It is the reason God sent His Son to earth (John 3:16-21). But even the casual observer sees the words of Paul coming to fruition as churches and preachers proliferate where people gather to hear what their itching ears want to hear (2 Timothy 4:3-5). Sin isn’t a popular theme for many today as they replace the Gospel with self-help, feel-good platitudes. Yet the stain of sin and cleansing blood of Christ permeates the pages of God’s Word. We cannot appreciate the good news of salvation unless we understand the bad news of sin.
