Adam's Corner

Welcome to Mayfield church of Christ. If you are visiting with us, we are happy you are here. Please let us know if you have any questions for us. Please come back!

Tommy Berryhill was baptized into Christ recently. We are so proud of Tommy for this decision. Tommy is a resident of Creekside Manor Nursing Home in Saltillo – room #6. I know he would love a visit from you.

Well, Mr. Clyde Neaves will soon be 98 years old. Mr. Clyde has served this congregation in many different capacities for many years. He has taught us all a lot. Everyone is invited to help Clyde celebrate his birthday Wednesday night after Bible class in the fellowship hall. Cake and ice cream will be served.

Let's worship God together!

We Love You!

Word of the Week

Wrath

In the Old Testament, the word wrath is found 155 times, and the word anger another 264 times. That means that as we read the Old Testament, we will encounter anger or wrath an astounding 419 times! Out of that number, around 300 times it is the wrath or anger of God that is being described. Different Hebrew words are used to describe these two emotions. The word commonly translated anger is the Hebrew word 'ap. The word wrath is frequently the Hebrew words ḥēmâ or qāṣap. Deuteronomy 9:19 is a good verse to illustrate these words. There Moses says, "For I was afraid of the anger ('ap) and hot displeasure (ḥēmâ) with which the Lord was wrathful (qāṣap) against you in order to destroy you" (NASB). Obviously the making of the golden calf greatly displeased the Lord! When one has feelings of wrath or anger, it is describing a fury or rage at what someone has said or done.²

In the New Testament the word translated wrath is orgē. It means "strong indignation directed at wrongdoing, with focus on retribution, wrath."³ This word is found 49 times in the Greek New Testament. The word translated anger is frequently thumos, meaning "a state of intense displeasure, anger, wrath, rage, indignation."⁴ This word is found 18 times in the Greek New Testament. Ephesians 4:31 serves as a good illustration of these words: "Let all bitterness and wrath (thumos) and anger (orgē) and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice" (NASB).

The variety of words used in both Testaments and the meanings of these words should encourage us to use caution. Wrath is found as both an admirable trait and a sinful one. A person, zealous for the will of God, might be filled with "righteous indignation." This is an admirable trait (especially with all of the passiveness we see today in God's people). Yet a person might also be filled with a hot temper or rage when someone does something to upset him. This would be a sinful trait, and one that is condemned by God.

When the wrath of God is described, it reveals the true heart of the Lord. He is the almighty God, and His Word should reign supreme in the hearts of men. When mortal men shun or speak against the words of the Lord, it provokes Him! Who do they think they are? While God is a God full of lovingkindness and compassion, all of that disappears when men arrogantly defy Him and His holy Word (Exodus 34:6-7).
