Adam's Corner

Welcome to Mayfield church of Christ. If you are visiting with us, we are happy you are here. Please let us know if you have any questions for us. Please come back!

This past week, Tommy Berryhill came forward to ask for prayers for forgiveness of sins. Clare Roberson also responded asking for the prayers of the church for forgiveness of sins and for strength going forward. Please continue to pray for these two and lift them up in their walk with God.

James 5:16 "Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."

Let's worship God together!

We Love You!

Adam

Word of the Week

Mercy

On at least two different occasions in Matthew (Matthew 9:9-13; 12:1-8), Jesus refers specifically to what God says through Hosea in Hosea 6:6, "I desire mercy, not sacrifice." Once it was like a homework assignment, "Go and learn what this means," and on another occasion He seems to note that they had failed to fulfill that previous assignment, "If you had known what these words mean" In both situations Jesus is addressing Pharisees who are unwilling to accept the way Jesus is dealing with people.

The verses in Psalm 4:1 and Matthew 9:27 represent the first of many times David cries out for mercy in the Psalms and the first of many examples where Jesus is approached by people who are asking for mercy. Do I pray that way, or am I too proud to ask for mercy?

The parable of the unmerciful servant in Matthew 18:21-35 provides a graphic reminder of God's mercy towards us, the response His mercy should produce in us, and the tragic consequences of failing to allow His mercy to flow through us.

Luke 10:25-37 is the parable of the Good Samaritan: the classic example of what mercy looks like. We cannot prove it, but it is certainly possible that the priest and Levite could have felt some pity in their hearts as they each "passed by on the other side." However, it is only the Samaritan who stops and becomes personally involved. This story also provides a dual example: how Jesus has shown mercy by rescuing us from Satan's attempt to destroy us, and how we can show mercy to others, even strangers, when we see them in need. James 2:1-13 addresses what the attitude of Christians ought to be towards those the world may choose to ignore—the same type of situation that created problems between Jesus and the Pharisees. "Mercy triumphs over judgment" is the summation James uses to conclude this discussion.

Quote: In Warren Wiersbe's book Be Loyal, he comments on Matthew 12:1-8: "The Sabbath law was given to Israel as a mark of her relationship to God (Nehemiah 9:12-15; Exodus 20:9-11, 31:13-17). But it was also an act of mercy for both man and beast, to give them needed rest each week. Any religious law that is contrary to mercy and the care of nature should be looked upon with suspicion. God wants mercy, not religious sacrifice. He wants love, not legalism."³
