Acts 2:36-38

"Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."

Let's worship God together!

We Love You!

Adam

Word of the Week

Love

In the Old Testament, the verb form for the word love is 'ahab. The word means to have a strong emotional attachment or desire for someone or something. The word is used to describe the affection between parents and children (Genesis 22:2). It also sometimes described the attachment of a slave to a master (Exodus 21:5). The word is used at times to describe very close friendships (1 Samuel 18:1). It is sometimes used in the sense of unflagging loyalty (1 Kings 5:1).

The noun form of 'ahab is 'ahabah. This word appears 55 times in the Old Testament and represents several kinds of love. It can describe the love between a man and a maid (Genesis 29:20), love between friends (1 Samuel 18:3), and God's love for man (Deuteronomy 7:8).

While there are more terms in the Greek language, the New Testament uses only two in both their verb and noun forms. Both are used to refer to godly love and ungodly love. The "love of God" is a concept with certain qualities, but the word love is used to refer to all kinds of love.

One of the verbs is agapao. Its corresponding noun is agape. It is used in the New Testament to describe the affection and bond God has with His Son (John 17:26), the attitude He has toward mankind (John 3:16), and particularly, the attitude He has toward His people (John 14:21). It describes the bond that we are to have toward fellow Christians (John 13:34-35), and our attitude toward those who are not (1 Thessalonians 3:12). It describes the essential nature of God (1 John 4:8). This love is not simply passive—it is expressed (1 John 4:9-10). It is a fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22). It expresses itself toward God by obedience to His commands (John 14:15-21). This love is selfless and therefore selfishness is the negation of love. Love does not occur because the one we love is loveable or worthy. It is a decision of the will. If this were not so, God could not have loved us.

The other verb that is used for love in the NT is phileo with its corresponding noun philanthropia. It describes the feeling of the Father toward His Son (John 3:35), and His feeling toward the obedient believer (John 14:21).
