Remarks From Mark

Article: “How’s Your Appetite?”

The South is known for its good food. The Delta has outstanding restaurants and the Tupelo area does as well. We love to talk about food, especially great encounters with food. Sometimes just the thought of a certain dish will get my mouth watering. Sometimes just walking outside and smelling a barbeque or someone grilling a steak will change your supper (it is supper in the South right?) plans for the night. Do you ever go to the grocery store before you have eaten? If you are like me and this happens, you end up buying food you never intended or would never thought of buying before. What about spiritual things? Jesus compared the manna that the Israelites ate in the wilderness to the bread He offered (John 6:30-59 esp. vs.35, 48). Many of the disciples did not have a spiritual appetite for what Jesus was saying, and departed from Him (John 6:60, 66). These were difficult sayings for them to understand at the time. However, Peter got it, maybe not all of it, but he understood enough to know there was no other source to God than through Jesus. Therefore he said, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Also we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God” (John 6:68-69). So, how’s your appetite? See, we either have an appetite for destruction, a heart that really doesn’t desire the teachings of the Lord, or we have an appetite for life, and not just any life – eternal life, a heart that hungers and thirsts for righteousness which can only come from the Lord! My prayer is that we have an unquenchable thirst for living water and a ravenous hunger for the bread of life! Grace and peace to you! I love you all!
