Remarks From Mark

The Goals of God-given Roles

As we continue to examine (Eph. 4:11-16), Paul sets forth the goals in (v.13) of God-given roles stated in (v.11). In the first century the church was in its infantile stage. It needed to be brought to maturity, as the word of God was being completed. In order for this to take place goals would need to be met. One of the main goals was unity of the faith. We have this faith, the word of God, that was one time for all time delivered to us (Jude 3). Within God's word, we find that we all may be one was a desire of Jesus in His prayer recorded in (John 17:20-23). Paul states this as well at the beginning of this chapter. We are to endeavor, work really hard, to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace (4:3). God wants no division within the body of His dear Son (1 Cor. 12:25). This unity of the faith is based on the knowledge of Jesus Christ, which would help mature these young Christians, which would be the second goal to be met (v.13). Jesus Christ is the only source of true spiritual maturity (Col. 2:2-8). Let us submit ourselves to Him and His teachings (1 Cor. 14:20). Let us pray for proper understanding, in order to use His word properly. The New Testament church is now mature, but many of its members are not yet mature. Let us always have a sincere desire to grow into the spiritually mature members of Christ's body. When we have as our greatest desire to know our Lord better every day of our lives, we will grow into the unified body, built upon the solid foundation of Jesus Christ in His word. In doing this we will attain the goals of the God-given roles within the body. God loves you, and I do too! Grace and peace to you!
